IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY

APPELLATE SIDE

CONTEMPT PETITION NO.306 OF 2005

Shri A.J.Inamdar. ...Petitioner.

Vs.

State of Maharashtra & Ors. ...Respondents.

.....

Mr.A.D.Avhad Petitioner.

.....

CORAM : DR.D.Y.CHANDRACHUD, J.

December 7, 2005.

P.C. :

In a communication dated 1st July 2005, the Learned Advocate General informed the Advocate for the Petitioner that the proposed Contempt Petition which has been forwarded to him under cover of a letter dated 21st June 2005 did not contain the annexures referred to therein. In view thereof, the Learned Advocate General was unable to arrive at any opinion on whether a case for criminal contempt has been made out. Counsel appearing on behalf of the Petitioner states that this petition is not pressed at the present stage since the Petitioner is advised to move the Learned Advocate General afresh with all documents. The petition is accordingly dismissed.
